FALL FESTIVAL AND HORSE SHOW IS FORMALLY OPENED HERE TODAY

PARADE BRINGS OUT MANY HORSES

Showing in Heavy Draft and Mule
Classes Begins This Afternoon
With Competition Keen.

THE PROGRAM FOR THE WEEK

Booths Are Lavishly Decorated and Streets Are Gayly Attired For Festival Feature.

The horse show and fall festival formally opened this morning with a parade of horses entered in the show.
Immediately after dinner the awarding of premiums began. The classes for heavy draft horses and mules were to run off this afternoon.

Tonight there will be a band concert on the court house lawn and the free attractions will take place at two different places, corner of Second and Morgan streets and in front of the Rushville Co-operative Telephone company's building.

The free acts will be given by Nathano Brothers, acrobats and trick roller skaters. They were to appear first at four o'clock this afternoon. They will have a new sensational stunt for each appearance.

Tomorrow promises to excel today's program. The showing of horses will begin in the morning. The classes for ponies and general purposes horses are on the program.

The last thing on the horse show program Wednesday afternoon will be a trotting race. Any horse, no matter how long or by whom it has been trained may be entered. The race will be run in First street. The free attractions will take place at four and eight o'clock.

The night program will consist of an automobile parade of which Elmer Caldwell is superintendent and a display of fireworks. Persons in the parade will be provided with red fire and torches. The parade will form in Fifth street on each side of Main and move down the Main street hill.
Prizes of ten, six and two dollars are offered as first, second and third prizes for the best decorated automobiles.

Thursday will be the prize day.
The whole day is reserved for the showing of light harness horses. This is easily the most popular class of the show and always excites the best competition. Heretofore it has had to be rushed to conclusion late in the evening, but this year since there is plenty of time, everyone is anticipating the best show on record here.

It is a part of the program to complete the showing of light harness stuff and the last race, the pacing events by 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon in time for the industrial parade. This will form in Harrison street north of Second and will be led by the marshal of the day and his assistants, the Indianapolis News Newsboys' band and the Indianapolis delegation of boosters from the capital city Chamber of Commerce.

Thursday night there will be the usual free attractions and a band concert.

The parade of horses this morning made it plain that Rushville is to have the best horse show this year she ever had. There was a fine ar-concerning the arrangements for the here Thursday. There will be at least a hundred and fifty in the deleat eleven o'clock in special I. & C.

A committee of Rushville men has been appointed to meet the special

Their plans are to make a parade through the business district on their arrival here. After that, they will call on friends and see the horse show until time for the industrial parade.

The visiting boosters will be asked to march at the head of the industrial parade. The marshal of the day, Will Brown, and his assistants, will lead the parade, followed by the Indianapolis News Newsboys' band and the Indianapolis delegation. Then will follow the parade, the Rushville band marching about midway of it.

The parade will form in Harrison street north of Second. The parade will turn into Second street and move east to Main street, thence south in Main street to First, east in First street to Perkins, north in Perkins to Second, west in Second to Main and north in Main street where the parade will disband after reaching Fifth street. The visitors will be asked to fall out near the C. H. & D. railroad and witness the efforts of the business people of Rushville to make an industrial showing.

The parade will start as near three o'clock as possible and all those who plan to participate in it are urged to program.

ident of the United States. The meeting, it is expected, will be the largest ever held in Wayne township, Henry county, and in addition to

WANTS A DIVORCE; HUSBAND A CONVICT

Mrs. Nancy Crabtree Files Suit Against Milton Crabtree, Alleging he is in Reformatory

WAS CONVICTED OF FORGERY

Alleging that her husband was guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment and that he is at present serving a term in the reformatory at Jeffersonville, Mrs. Nancy Crabtree, colored, filed suit for divorce this morning from Milton Crabtree, Mrs.
Crabtree states in the complaint that he was constantly looking for trouble and was always complaining of the manner in which she kept the house.
In fact, nothing, according to the complaint, seemed to suit him.

They were married December 20, 1911 and separated February 28, 1913. He was convicted of the charge of forgery at the February term of court last year. His sentence is from two to fourteen years.

GET EVIDENCE OF A "BLIND TIGER"

Police Find Thirty-Four Bottles of Beer in Barrel at Home of Charles Sorrell.

SORRELL ELUDES POLICE

The police believe they have sufficient evidence against Charles Sorrell to warrant his arrest on a "blind tiger" charge. The warrant for his arrest has been issued but Sorrell eluded Chief Rosenerance while on the way to the mayor's office this morning and so far has succeeded in keeping out of sight of the police.

In a raid at the Sorrell home in South Pearl street last night thirty-four bottles of beer out of a barrel was found. Several men were found in a shed in the rear of the house playing rum and drinking the beer.
Sorrell was not taken to jail on his promise to report at the mayor's office this morning. He kept his word and was there but the affidavit had not been made out and he left. Shortly afterwards the warrant was read to him by Chief Rosenerance and in company with Harry Pea they started through an alley for the mayor's office. Sorrell ran down another alley. It is stated that his reason for running was to obtain a bondsman and avoid waiting in jail until one could be secured. The police expect that he will put in an early appearance.

SINK BRITISH SUBMARINE

German Warships Demolish E-3 Sunday, it is Just Reported.

(By United Press.)
Berlin, (By Wireless) Oct. 20.—It was officially announced here today that the new British submarine E-3 was sunk by German warships in the North Sea on Sunday.

This is the first report that has reached here of the loss of the British submarine. The E-3 went into commission in November, 1913. She was 176 feet long and 810 tons displacement, capable of 15 knots per hour and was equipped with four torpedo tubes and carried a crew of 16 men.

CONTINUE EFFORTS TO CROSS VISTULA

Petrograd War Office Declares, German Losses Are Heavy in Eastern Theater of War.

ENEMY LEAVE 18,000 DEAD

(By United Press.)
Petrograd, Oct. 20.—Official statements declare that the Germans are continuing their efforts to cross the Vistula river at several points despite very heavy losses. At no point, says the statement, have they succeeded. The Russians are declared to be advancing steadily although slowly on the Warsaw-Ivangorod front driving the Germans before them. According to a statement published in the Army Gazette some 18,000 German dead, left on the field by the retreating Germans were buried by the Russians.

The war office states that the German right wing, which is extended into Galicia, has been making determined attacks in co-operation with the Austrians but it is claimed that at no point has the enemy succeeded in gaining any distinct advantage.
The Austrians have attempted to cross the San river only to be repulsed with heavy losses while 15 Austrian officers and 1,000 soldiers have been taken prisoners.

REPULSED, TRY ANOTHER ROUTE

London Says Germans Are Attempting to Break Through Allied Lines From Lille.

WOULD OVERWHELM DUNKIRK

(By United Press.)
London, Oct. 20.—Repulsed in their attempts to break the allied lines in the north and overwhelm Dunkirk, the Germans are today trying to break through from the direction of Lille and Nonin. Very strong forces of German infantry supported by Austrians and German artillery mounted on heavy motor trucks are pushing forward along the main highway from these points. They are encountering spirited resistance however, and so far have made no headway.

Dunkirk is absolutely essential to the German war plan, the military experts here say. The British military authorities were confident today. They were fully convinced that the Germans would be unable to make further gains in northern France while the French eastern movement becomes more formidable.

DEMOCRATS SHOW HAND WHEN BIG MOOSE IN INDIANA SHOWS UP HERE

DEMOCRATS ACT AS A. J. B. ESCORTS

Candidates and County Officials go to Milroy to Greet Progressive Senatorial Candidate.

"NO BONES" ABOUT ATTITUDE

They Plainly Indicate They Are Thankful For Past Favors and Will Accept More Nov. 3.

Further evidence that the Democrats of Rush county are playing for the Progressives was shown at the Beveridge meetings in Milroy and Rushville. In fact, the Democrats could not wait for Beveridge to arrive here but went to Milroy and met him there. After attending the speaking there the party of local Democrats escorted him to this city.

The local Democrats who met him in Milroy include Judge John D. Me-gee, Democratic candidate for judge, Donald Smith, present Democratic prosecutor and candidate for re-election, Vorhees Cavitt, present sheriff and candidate on the Democratic ticket for re-election, Arie M. Taylor, clerk of the circuit court, J. Milt Stiers and Cary Carson, state librarian.

Besides a few Bull Moosers from this city the Democrats mentioned above comprised the reception committee which greeted Beveridge when he landed in Milroy, the first place in his campaign through Rush county.
Naturally the Democrats are friendly to the Progressives but yesterday they were more than this—they even went to Milroy in the interest of their aid society. Beveridge arrived in Milroy from Clarksburg about one hour late, but the local Democrats jammed into the school building and listened to Elbert Russel, the Progressive candidate for congress. Even before Russell spoke they were busy up in the business district of Milroy doing campaign duty among the Progressives of Anderson township.

This seemingly uncalled for interest by the leading Democrats of the county in the Progressives did not rest well with some of the Progressives, who really believe in the party for the principles the party represents. The move of the Democrats was too plain, it did not need an explanation and because it was out in the open it only caused the greater dissatisfaction among the Progressives.

The arrival of Beveridge in this city from Milroy did not create a profound stir because the Democrats escorted him. The action yesterday of the Democrats was the boldest yet pulled off in the campaign and was a sort of an appropriation meeting to show the Progressives evidently that they are thankful for past favors and that they are willing to accept the same favors at the coming election.

EXTRA POLICE.

Three extra policemen are on duty to assist in handling the crowds during the horse show. The extra men are Arthur Yakey, William Higgs and William Toombs. Two men will be on duty all night.

Wesley Mull has sold his farm of sixty-two and a half acres in Walker township to William Miller for $10,- 000.

BEVERIDGE MAKES MORE CONFESSIONS

Perennial Candidate Admits all His Past Glories in Revarnishing 1912 Speech Here.

SOME 1914 IMPROVEMENTS

He causes One Person to Wonder Whether Any One Else Was in the Senate When he Was There.

Albert J. Beveridge made his perennial appearance here last night. His speech was the 1912 model varnished up and with some 1914 improvements. He had the same far cry about ridding the old parties of bosses, machines and corruption. For the most part, he held his opponents up to ridicule. He assumed the same chaste position in politics that he has always acknowledged to hold. He admitted all of the wonderful things of his past—yes, admitted them outright. Last night he added a new star to his crown. He acknowledged that he was responsible for the reduction of the "pork barrel" rivers and harbors bill in the senate a few weeks ago. It was Senator Burton of Ohio who led the filibuster on the bill and was solely responsible, with the aid of some of his colleagues, in reducing the proposed appropriation.

Beveridge came here from Milroy about six o'clock, led by several Democrats and a few Progressives, in automobiles. Shortly before eight o'clock a delegation from Connersville and nearby points, eighty-five in number including a drum corps, arrived and paraded through the downtown district. A few local Progressives joined in the parade so that there were about a hundred and fifty.
The Rushville band also played.
There were also delegates from other nearby towns.

The Coliseum was fairly well filled when Beveridge got there. The ground seats were comfortably filled, although there was ample room for a lot more people and the raised seats in the center of the building were about all utilized. But when Beveridge was here two years ago, the Coliseum was packed to the doors with

American Shoes March Forward

When it was reported that one of the European armies was equipped with American shoes, it was remarked that "these shoes would only march forward."

In an industrial sense American shoes are going ahead this Fall to a greater extent than ever.

Demand is heavy and factories busy.

Just now the stores are showing the Fall styles—all of them creditable to our American shoe makers.

But for your individual need some shoes are better than others.

It would be well to post yourself as to the merits of the different brands and the stores selling them, by reading the advertising in The Daily Republican.

I offer a genuine guaranteed remedy for tobacco habit. It is mild, pleasant, strengthening. For either sex. Overcome that terrible nervousness and craving for cigarettes, cigars, pipes, chewing tobacco or snuff. Tobacco is poisonous and seriously injures the health in several ways, causing such disorders as nervous dyspepsia, sleeplessness, gas, belching, gnawing or burning discomforts, sensation in stomach, constipation, headache, weak eyes, loss of vigor, red spots on skin, throat irritation, catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, heart failure, lung trouble, melancholy, neurasthenia, impaired memory and will power, impure (poisoned) blood, heartburn, torpid liver, loss of appetite, bad teeth, foul breath, indigestion, lack of ambition, weakness and falling out of hair and many other disorders. Nervous breakdown, weakened intellect and INSANITY are often attributed to tobacco habit by eminent medical men. Why continue committing suicide?

If a Merchant Offers a Cut Price on any article of merchandise he has to sell. One of two things has happened—He has either lost confidence in his own judgment and is afraid his ware will not sell at the price he placed on it, or he is playing you, Mr. Buyer, for an easy mark and is simply using cut price advertising for bait and if you are a fish and like the bait, he is going to land you. If a merchant puts an honest profit on what he has to sell when he first offers it for sale, it will remove all temptations to cut prices. Wouldn't you rather buy what you need from the man that has one price and especially when that price is lower than the cut prices of his competitors, and you don't have to wait until a sale day to get what you want. If you want to trade where you pay the same price every day in the year and where you don't pay any more any time than the other fellow, we want to sell you your buggies. And as to the styles, we have all the new ones in storm buggies there are on any market, but you know where the styles all originate. Remember, we sold Colonial styles two years ago. We have found better things now. Take a look—then you will know.

Every trace of dandruff is removed with one application, the hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair, itching scalp and falling hair cease.

TWO NERVOUS WOMEN

Made Well By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa. — "I had a severe case of nervous prostration, with palpitation of the heart, constipation, headaches, dizziness, noise in my ears, timid, nervous, restless feelings and sleeplessness. "I read in the paper where a young woman had been cured of the same troubles by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I threw away the medicines the doctor left me and began taking the Compound. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to sit up and in a short time I was able to do all my work. Your medicine has proved itself able to do all you say it will and I have recommended it in every household I have visited."—Mrs. MARY JOHNSTON, 210 Siegel Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Another Bad Case.

Ephrata, Pa. — "About a year ago I was down with nervous prostration. I was pale and weak and would have hysterical spells, sick headaches and a bad pain under my shoulder-blade. I was under the care of different doctors but did not improve. I was so weak I could hardly stand long enough to do my dishes. "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me well and happy and I have begun to gain in weight and my face looks healthy now."—Mrs. J. W. HORNBERGER, R. No. 3, Ephrata, Pa.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

A Warning to Many
Some Interesting Facts About Kidney Troubles.

Few people realize to what extent their health depends upon the condition of the kidneys.

The physician in nearly all cases of serious illness, makes a chemical analysis of the patient's urine. He knows, that unless the kidneys are doing their work properly the other organs cannot readily be brought back to health and strength.

When the kidneys are neglected or abused in any way, serious results are sure to follow. According to health statistics, Bright's disease which is really an advanced form of kidney trouble, caused nearly ten thousand deaths in 1913, in the state of New York alone. Therefore, it behooves us to pay more attention to the health of these most important organs.

An ideal herbal compound that has had remarkable success as a kidney remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

The mild and healing influence of this preparation, in most cases, is soon realized, according to sworn statements and verified testimony of those who have used the remedy.

If you feel that your kidneys require attention, and wish a sample bottle, write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper, enclose ten cents and they will gladly forward it to you by Parcel Post.

Swamp-Root is sold by every druggist, in bottles of two sizes—50c and $1.00.

Eventually

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

Why not now?

What Does it Mean?

For the first time in his long political career Thomas Taggart has found it necessary to go into the campaign and make speeches in order to try to save the Democratic party from rout. Taggart and W. H. O'Brien, auditor of state, will devote four days of next week to a campaign speaking trip through the Twelfth and Thirteenth districts.

There was great surprise when the news became public that Taggart and O'Brien were going on the stump. Such a thing never happened before in the history of the party. Some facetious persons have said that this probably means that Crawford Fairbanks and Donn Roberts will go on the stump also for the Democratic state ticket.

The Democratic state ticket is in such a bad fix just now that there was nothing left to do but for Taggart and O'Brien to take the stump in its behalf. If they cannot save Homer Cook and the state ticket then they cannot be saved.

The cry went up from the state headquarters that the state ticket was in great danger. Taggart nominated the ticket and it was put up to him to save it if possible. The Democrats had been greatly disappointed because many speakers that were wanted failed to show up in the campaign. It was, therefore, up to Taggart and O'Brien, his right-hand man to jump in. Neither Taggart nor O'Brien is an orator. Taggart especially does not like to make speeches, and like O'Brien knows little other than organization.

Their taking the stump is the strongest possible admission they could make that the ticket is on the rocks. If it were not, Taggart would not take the stump.

What Our Neighbors
Are Talking About

I. I. I. I. I. I.

(Knightstown Banner.)

Barnum, the greatest showman of all showmen, had side shows. Forpaugh had side shows. Sells Brothers had side shows. Ringling Brothers have their side shows. It is so with the Democratic party, its side show being the bull moose party the chief master and clown of ceremonies being one Albert Jeremiah Beveridge. He is better known over the state and throughout the land as the big "I" for nothing was ever done or accomplished but what the egotistical "I" did it.

The big "I" was here, right here in Knightstown, Saturday night last. He was late in appearing at the Alhambra opera house, where motion pictures were put on and shown to hold the crowd. Since his desertion of the Republican party the big "I" has invariably been late, and it is dollars to a doughnut that he always will be late when the political offices are handed out. Poor Jeremiah; he has run his race, the big "I" is a dead one.

"Elect me, towering intellectual Indiana giant, and I will restore prosperity to the land. I will restore the tariff upon your potatoes, your wheat, your corn, your cattle, your eggs, your coal, your hogs, all the Democrats took off and gave to the southern planters and the cheap foreign labor of Europe. Elect me, and streams of gold will run through your hands like water from ten thousand hills. Elect me, and night will turn to day. Elect me, and the poles of the earth will come together. Elect me, and all mankind will become as one brother; war and pestilence forever will be banished from the land. Elect me, and I will fill the offices of the land with bull moosers without horns. Elect me, and sugar will shrink and shrivel in price. I am the coming man of the western hemisphere. I am the coming man of all the world. Wolves flee at my approach. Men bow before me. You have heard the eulogy passed upon me by your speaker on this platform tonight. I am all he has proclaimed and more. I thank you ladies and gentlemen, mostly ladies for your patient waiting. Great men are always waited upon. Again I thank you. I will come and come again. The name of Jeremiah Beveridge shall live forever in the minds of men, women and children. I have declared it. The worlds resounds with my declaration. Goodnight; I go to catch a car for Indianapolis, the home of the greatest of all living men."

Along these lines talked Albert Jeremiah Beveridge at the opera house, Saturday night, to a large audience, nine-tenths of which were women. As he scooted for the door to take his departure the band played, the rafters of the majestic building shook the lights went out, and all was still—the haven for all ills of mankind had taken its departure.

(Dr. Hurty will answer questions on prevention of disease, hygiene and sanitation. Questions requiring a personal answer cannot be considered. "The Palace of Eats" was the name the owner gave to his restaurant in a small Indiana town. The name was so effulgent the inspector was led to make an inspection. He entered. There was the usual counter with high stools, the wall shelves with pies, buns, plates of fried meats, etc., etc., upon them. And the flies! They were numerous and insistent, and through the unscreened back door could be seen the open garbage barrel and the outhouse which maintained the supply. In the cracks between the shelves and the wall were found a few maggots, and here was another source for the abundant fly supply. All of these conditions did not in the slightest degree work against patronage. The customers were many. "The Palace of Eats" did a good business. The boy at the counter had sore eyes and constantly rubbed them with his fingers and then with the same fingers lifted sandwiches, cake and pie. The customers did not object. Indeed not one noticed the conditions but ate with gusto. The inspector went forth into the night. His spirits were too low to call forth action.

M. O. Spiceland, writes—"Is the moderate use of cosmetics injurious?" (The signature said Spiceland but the envelope was postmarked Muncie).

Reply—There is no harm in most cosmetics. The best cosmetic is good health. Get it.

L. Bloomington writes—"What effect does imprisonment have on the health? Take for example the case of Mrs. Rae Krauss who has been in the woman's prison for ten years. Is that the proper kind of punishment for the state to inflict?"

Reply—Our Indiana State Prisons are found to be really good sanatoriums. The broken down wrecks are quickly brought back to health through right living. They sleep in extra clean, extra ventilated cells, in extra clean beds. They lead the regular life and have an abundance of good well cooked plain food. They have excellent bathing facilities and must bathe regularly. They are kindly treated, they are taught politeness and consideration for others and they have the best possible medical service. It is a daily happening to see new prisoners who are sick when admitted recover their health.

J. K. JAMESON

for

SHERIFF

Mr. J. K. Jameson the Republican candidate for Sheriff of Rush county is one of our most substantial citizens. He has lived in Rushville for the past 34 years and all this time has followed his trade, that of a blacksmith, in a quiet and orderly manner. He is a man in whom the people have confidence, and will, no doubt, poll a large vote among his immediate neighbors. Mr. Jameson is a prominent lodge man and quite active in fraternal work connected with lodges to which he belongs. He was a candidate two years ago for the same office that he now seeks and polled a very large vote. Had it not been for a split in the Republican party, on national issues at that time, Mr. Jameson would have been an easy winner. Mr. Jameson is a man of the people. He belongs to that class of which Lincoln said, "God must have liked, He made so many of them, namely, the common people."

JAPS SIEZE ISLANDS.

Tokio, Oct. 20.—It is officially announced that for "strategic reasons" the Japanese naval detachments have seized the principal islands in the German groups of the Marshall, Ladrone, East and West Caroline archipelagos. These islands have been used by the Germans as bases for their warships operating in the Pacific.

EASY TO DARKEN
YOUR GRAY HAIR

Try this! Mix Sage Tea and Sulphur and brush it through your hair, taking one strand at a time.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

LYNCH INVADES WAYNE COUNTY

Wades Into Progressive Stronghold of 1913 This Week and Will Devote Nine Days to it.

FACTORY MEETINGS PLANNED

Liberty Herald is Won Over by Republican Nominee's Strong Personality and Appeal

Richmond, Ind., Oct. 20.—P. J. Lynch, of Newcastle, Republican nominee for Congress in the Sixth District, began a thorough campaign in Wayne county Monday. He will devote nine days to this county spending five days here this week and four days the week following. His campaign in Richmond will include factory meetings each day. He will speak in each town and hamlet and will be the central figure in a big rally at Cambridge City.

At the time Mr. Lynch opened the Republican campaign in Richmond, the Richmond Palladium, Progressive party organ had the following to say:

"The meeting was opened with an address by Mr. Lynch. He is an eloquent speaker and made a big hit with his audience. He said that later in the campaign he intended to come to Richmond and at that time he would fully explain the principles behind his candidacy for congress."

Mr. Lynch has been making a most thorough and aggressive campaign and has been favored with big crowds everywhere. He comes to Wayne county from Shelby county, where he was greeted by extraordinarily large crowds while two meetings that were to have been held by Prof. Elbert Russell, Progressive candidate for Congress, in Shelby county, were called off because only a handful of men appeared. Russell merely shook hands with those who did appear.

The Liberty Herald, speaking of Mr. Lynch's campaign in Union county declares that he was greeted by large and enthusiastic crowds. In reference to the candidate, the Herald, which has just recently been won to Mr. Lynch's cause by his strong personality and powerful appeal, says:

"He (Lynch) is an earnest and rapid speaker, impressing his hearers as a man of deep convictions and high purposes. He has Republican doctrines well in hand and is courteous in referring to other parties, and is withal a pleasing speaker."

"Mr. Lynch in his speeches contends for the principles and policies of the Republican party in a straight and earnest manner, to the end that business be promoted and labor be employed at living wages. He shows the reckless mismanagement of State affairs by the Democratic bosses, with the continual increase in the tax burdens of the people."

"He also shows up the direct consequences in the nation of the Democratic mistaken policy of free trade tariff, past and present, with its inadequate revenues to support the government, and its great hardships to American laboring people. He certainly made a favorable impression in Union county with voters who met and heard him."

ray of animals in all classes.

Will L. Brown and two assistants led the parade, followed by Sehman Oneal and P. A. Miller, officials of the horse show company. They were followed by cabs hauling the judges, Judge John D. Megee, Mayor C. L. Bebout and several show promoters.

The streets today presented a gala appearance. All of the booths were decorated this morning and added greatly to the attractiveness. Merchants were taking advantage of the booths as they offered an excellent opportunity for displaying goods.

Tomorrow will be Ford day. Knecht and Gartin, local agents, have invited every owner of a Ford in Rush county to take part in the demonstration and they have not received an unfavorable answer from any one.

CLAIM PROGRESS ON BATTLE LINE

Paris War Office Says Germans Fail to Check Offensive Movement on Banks of Meuse.

BELGIANS HOLD THEIR LINE

(By United Press.)

Paris, Oct. 20.—That material progress is being made by the allies at various points in the long battle line was officially announced today. The three o'clock official communique, telegraphed from Bordeaux summed up the result with that statement:

"The Belgian forces who are holding the line from the vicinity of Neuport to Dixmude and along the front of the river Yser are declared to be maintaining their positions on the face of the German opposition."

"The Germans still hold their strongly entrenched advanced positions in the vicinity of Lille but generally speaking there is little change reported from that section."

"The Germans have vainly endeavored to check the strong French offensive from the right bank of the Meuse, especially from the positions in the neighborhood of Camp De Romains."

As a whole the entire situation is described as eminently satisfactory.

Peru Man Grateful for Ninety Day Jail Sentence for Drunk

(By United Press.)

Peru, Ind., Oct. 19.—An attorney here who recently acted as special police judge is waiting anxiously for the fulfillment of a promise made by a grateful man who had just completed his jail term. This prisoner was grateful because the judge had imprisoned him for ninety days and promised the judge two bushels of onions as a reward. When the man was released from jail he went to the chief of police and asked for a receipt for the term spent in jail. He did not get this, but appeared grateful just the same, for he said he was on the water wagon for good and that the city could have the pint of whiskey that was found on him when he was picked up intoxicated.

WAS IN MOSCOW 100 YEARS AGO

France Looks Upon Russians Quite Differently Than Then When Napoleon Was Almost Shattered

THEIR AIRMEN ARE MISSING

Look Upon Cossacks to Save City of Paris From Destruction—Contrast is Very Sharp.

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Paris, Sept. 29. (By Mail to New York)—A little man all bundled up in coats drove up this very street one December day a century ago and rushing into a building in this very park, tore through the halls, dashed into a certain room and there threw his arms around the Empress of France. He was Napoleon, back from Moscow, where the Russians had all but shattered him. Two days later he told France the story and France shuddered at the name of Russia.

But today when I saw this street, France was thrilling with hope at the thought that somewhere, in the fog of war, huge Cossacks from Moscow itself, perhaps, were coming, by land or by sea, with their wild horses, to save this street and palace and the great art galleries and Paris and France itself from the Germans.

The street was almost deserted. The great Tuilleries gardens lay in the golden autumn sunshine as empty and silent as if they had been farms in Iowa, after crop time, instead of the most famous park in the world.

The Louvre art gallery was locked. I don't know whether its art treasures remain there or not. A soldier at one door told me he didn't know either. The wonderful pieces of marble and painting which Napoleon himself when master of Europe seized as he pleased and took off as war booty to his great and powerful Paris, have been hidden away perhaps ere now or will be when the sound of German guns which I heard booming to the northwest this afternoon grows louder.

Here's the great building right here; the great Louvre gallery. Stand and look at it this September afternoon and then listen to the cannon, not many miles away, and you'll have a thrill you'll never forget. We cross the river. I want to see Napoleon's tomb. We pass great railroad stations that are closed; somewhere the steel lines that run out from them have been cut by the Germans and the trains are not running. Here we are at the Invalides, the old soldiers home. I can't go in. I can't even go near the old cannons, trophies which Napoleon brought from the ends of Europe. I wonder if all the tattered flags seized in other days from other armies by armies of France are still in their glass cases in the Invalides or have they been hidden ignominiously also with the trophies of art?

Come around behind this old Invalides building topped by a dome. Soldiers stop you. Under that dome rests a great stone sarcophagus. I know it well because I have spent hours like every other tourist gazing at it. I know it stands there under the dome in the center of that stone circle with magic names of "Austerlitz" and "Sedan" worked in marble below it.

Napoleon lies here. I remember the shrine with the marble Christ watching over the dead Emperor's grave and I remember in all this great building that the word "Napoleon" is chiselled only once and that in small letters under the sentence: "I desire to rest on the banks of the Seine, amid the French people whom I loved so well." How well are you resting this Indiana summer afternoon, Napoleon, with those German cannon sounding at the gates of Paris?

You may talk to tombs all you please and get no answer. They have only to do with the past, anyhow, and the cannon and a German aeroplane flying overhead reminded me of the present. "Where are the French airmen?" I asked an officer of the Guard.

"Everybody believes they're all dead," he said. "The Times said the other day that when the world knows, at the proper time, the story of our airmen, it will thrill and weep." As I said goodbye to the officer he turned away to his job of guarding the tomb of Napoleon.

The Eiffel tower, 1,000 feet high, loomed before us in the evening dusk. "The Germans will cut that in two with their shells," said the cab driver "That's the wireless station. What a fall it will be."

For the past few nights the armies of Europe have been sleeping and marching and killing under a full autumn moon. There has been surprisingly little rain in Europe and even London has had only splendid clear days. So it was through a beautiful evening that I went to my big, lonely, hotel, where there are only two guests besides myself.

Great fingers of light from the Eiffel tower scoured the skies for Zeppelins and one of them hitting the tall building across the street, lighted my room in regular throbs and made it hard to sleep.

It was ten in the evening in Paris, the play place of the world and I couldn't see a soul in the streets or even hear a footfall.

But early in the morning the boom of the cannon started again.

SCIATICA GIVES FAIR WARNING

Start Taking Rheuma at Once and Prevent Rheumatism from Becoming Chronic

Sharp, darting pains from the hips down the legs to the knees are signals of approach of sciatic, and should be treated at once to prevent rheumatism becoming chronic.

Rheuma dislodges the little uric acid crystals in the blood vessels feeding the great sciatic nerve and creates a free movement of the muscles and joints. It stimulates the kidneys, liver, bowels and skin to extra work in throwing off the irritating poisons throughout the system.

Read the testimony of Guy Torley, the great cyclist. of 265 Dayton avenue, St. Paul, Minn.: "I was so crippled with sciatic rheumatism in my hips that I could not walk without crutches. I spent over $300 without relief. Was persuaded to try Rheuma, and after taking three bottles the rheumatism had entirely left me."

F. B. Johnson & Co., and all druggists sell Rheuma. It is good for all forms of rheumatism, and costs so little you cannot afford to suffer for want of it.

LABORER HELPS DEFENSE

Testifies he Saw Woman Wearing White Night of Bailey Murder.

(By United Press.)
Mineola, L. I., Oct. 20.—Mrs. Louise Bailey was a prospective mother at the time she was shot in Dr. Edwin Carman's office. Two physicians who were present at the autopsy testified to this today in the murder trial of Mrs. Florence Carman. They said there was evidence that attempts had been made to prevent motherhood. Jealously was the motive that lead Mrs. Carman to slay Mrs. Bailey, declared District Attorney Smith in opening his case today. The prosecutor laid special stress on the finding of the dictograph in the doctor's office. George Golder, a laborer, aided the defense. He testified he was in the reception room adjoining the office just before the murder and that he saw a woman dressed all in white pass through the dining room next to the office. It has been established that Mrs. Carman wore a blue skirt.

Laredo, Texas, Oct. 29.—A local Mexican paper favorable to Carranza announced today that it had received advices that General Villa entered Aguas, Calientes at the head of 15,000 troops and made prisoners of the delegates attending the peace convention. General Antonio Villareal, mentioned as Villa's choice for provisional president, was said, to have been the only delegate to escape. He went to Mexico City. Carranza leaders asserted that they had received the same information in private telegrams. The report was not confirmed from Villa sources.

Case is in Sight

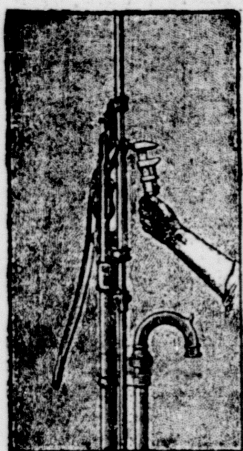

EXPERT TESTIMONY DUE YET

The Cheney damage suit was resumed in Shelbyville yesterday. Most of the day was taken up with the examination of the plaintiff in the case, Harold Cheney. The examination of young Cheney was resumed this morning and the end of the plaintiff's side of the case is in sight. They have their expert testimony to introduce yet and then the case will be finished from their standpoint. Because of Cheney's physical condition, he was given a chair in front of the jury instead of occupying the witness box to the right of the judge. The boy suffered a fracture of the hip in an accident at school and his suit against the physicians alleges malpractice in the treatment of the injury. The most important witness for the plaintiff was to be heard today, Dr. Allen of Indianapolis.

This and other economical features of 'So Easy-To-Fix' pumps will be explained at your request.
